Seeforlife.org

Pursuant to the Kansas Revised Statutes, Chapter 17, and other applicable laws governing nonprofit corporations in the State of Kansas, the undersigned incorporator(s) hereby forms and establishes a nonprofit corporation as follows:

Article I – Name

The name of this nonprofit corporation shall be SEE FOR LIFE, INC. dba SEE FOR LIFE, hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation."

Article II – Duration

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence unless dissolved in accordance with the provisions set forth in these Articles or as provided by law.

Article III – Purpose

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, cultural and scientific purposes as defined by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. The Corporation may engage in any and all lawful activities in furtherance of these purposes, including, but not limited to:

1. Advancing eye health, general health care, and all forms of related education, outreach, and support for children, families, and communities globally.
2. Facilitating, supporting, and promoting access to educational resources, programs, and opportunities for underserved or disadvantaged populations.
3. Enhancing the quality of education, fostering educational innovation, and expanding access to learning, training, and personal development in any form for national and international communities.
4. Supporting, initiating, and participating in charitable, humanitarian, or community-based initiatives aimed at improving the well-being, health, education, and quality of life for children, individuals and communities.
5. Undertaking any other activities or programs consistent with the Corporation's charitable, educational, cultural, religious, or scientific purposes.

In furtherance of these purposes, the Corporation shall have and may exercise all powers and rights now or hereafter conferred upon nonprofit corporations organized under the Kansas Revised Statutes, Chapter 17, or any successor statute, as well as any other lawful powers necessary or useful to carry out its purposes.

Article IV – Nonprofit Nature

Prohibition on Private Inurement: No part of the net earnings or assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes as set forth in Article III.

Political Activities: No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall involve carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The Corporation shall not participate or intervene (including publishing or distributing statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Compliance with Tax-Exempt Requirements: Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not engage in any activities not permitted:

- a) By a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; or
- b) By a corporation whose contributions are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Article V – Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, all assets remaining after payment or provision for payment of all debts and liabilities shall be distributed to one or more organizations that are organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

If no such organization is identified by the Board of Trustees at the time of dissolution, assets shall be distributed to a governmental entity for a public purpose consistent with the mission and goals set forth herein.

Article VI – Membership

The Corporation shall not have members unless specified otherwise in its Bylaws. If membership is established by Bylaws, membership conditions shall be defined therein.

Article VII – Powers

The Corporation shall have and exercise all rights and powers conferred upon nonprofit corporations by Kansas law, including but not limited to:

1. The power to contract, rent, buy, sell, lease, or otherwise acquire and dispose of personal or real property;

2. The power to accept grants, donations, contributions, gifts, bequests, and devises;
3. The power to engage in fundraising activities consistent with its mission;
4. The power to establish subsidiaries or affiliates if necessary to advance its purposes; and
5. Any other powers necessary or appropriate for carrying out its objectives as permitted by law.
